An outbreak is said to have subsequently occurred at Ulrera, but a despatch of the 7th inst. states that it had been completely put down, thirty of the insurgents having been killed, and twenty-two others, who were arrested, having been sentenced to be shot.

way from Arcadia to Avernus, and mi counter-tide of money-getting—a mest secure bagrier—meets it triumphantly on the suburbs; and if we are thus protected against spasms of morality, we are not liable to more than the usual harvest of adultery, felony, and delirium tremens. Outside of the large cities, however, an excess of crime is more marked. There, the an excess of crime is more marked. There, the even tenor of propriety and good conduct is the rule. It is not regarded in a raral community that, in order to be up with the times, they should have a foul reputation. Congregations if intolerable public pests cannot subsist among them. Their course is oftener towards the Arcadian pleasure grounds than in the other direction. Nature softens and elevates and hapires to imitation of her own wondrous and universal harmony. While however the elties furnish their regular proportion of candidates for the chain-gang and the gallows, (perhaps a diagraceful proportion,) the country sometimes comes up with a freak of ill-behavior altogether staggering, and, what adds to the general amane, no diminution from the routine of rescality is noticed in the cities, to indicate that the depocations of society are foreign for the time being elsewhere.

TRE BILLIARS CRAMPOWERS. The Southern New School Asse The Seathern New School Assembly.

(From the Basim Travaller.)

On the 27th of Angust there is to be a meeting, at Washington, of Southern New School Prebyterian Ministers, who can no longer abide the heresy of their Northern brethren, that is a sin to hold shaves. The twenty gentlemen, who, under the lead of Dr. Ross, took their hais and marched out of the Assembly at Cleveland, after entering their projest that is a not a sin in the sight of God for an American minister to hold his own Christian brothers in bondage, have called upon the Southern Christians to The Bullians Chasplosum.—The champion-ship at billiards is to be played for, within a short time, either in New York Philadelphis, or Baltimore. The contestants in the field are: L. J. Hingham, (the "Albany Pony,") Michael Phelan and Ralph Benjamin. bold his own Christian brothers in bondag are called upon the Southers Christians to me up to the Capital and establish a pur outhern Church Assembly.

The Hanover Presbytery, Virginia, has reponded to the call by electing a large number of delegates, clerical and lay members. We are say that all fairness was used in the else out of delegates, but as a matter of curios or of delegates.
